I do state the above information is accurate to the best of my knowledge.

The Applicant has completed this application ("Application") for a Scholarship ("Scholarship") grant from the Marr-Anderson Family Foundation ("Foundation"), which includes the terms and conditions of the Scholarship. The Applicant understands that by submitting that Application, and signing the Application herein that he/she is agreeing to the terms and conditions of the Scholarship outlined below:

- The Scholarship funds may only be used for the payment of "qualified educational expenses" as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as may be amended from time to time. These include tuition, fees, and course related equipment and books.
- The Scholarship will be payable directly to the educational institution that the Applicant plans to attend, and may only be applied by the educational institution for the qualified educational expenses of the Applicant if the Applicant is enrolled in the educational institution at the time and the Applicant is in good standing at such educational institution. Whether or not the Applicant is "in good standing" will be determined by the educational institution in its sole discretion and not by the Foundation.
- The Foundation is not liable for any payments withheld by the educational institution of such Scholarship funds.
- Failure of the Applicant to enroll in an educational institution within two years from the date that the Foundation issues an award letter to the Applicant shall result in forfeiture of the Scholarship.
- If the educational institution (for any reason including the failure of Applicant to remain in good standing) is unable to apply all of the Scholarship funds for the benefit of the Applicant within 5 years from the date that such funds are received by the educational institution, the Applicant shall forfeit such Scholarship funds (or the balance of such Scholarship funds).
- In the event Applicant suffers total and permanent disability or death, the Applicant shall forfeit the Scholarship funds (or the balance of such Scholarship funds) that have not been applied by the educational institution for the benefit of the Applicant.
- Applicant understands, acknowledges and agrees that the Foundation is required by law to disclose the Applicant's name, address and the amount of any funds paid to Applicant or on Applicant's behalf by the Foundation and the purpose of the Scholarship on the Foundation's tax return which is filed with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and that, as a result, this information will become public.
- Applicant understands that Applicant must submit a report, at least annually, as well as on completion of the Scholarship funding, to the Foundation regarding the use and application of the Scholarship funds. Applicant agrees to provide the foundation with an annual report and to report to the Foundation upon completion of the Scholarship funding. The report provided to the Foundation will include a detailed accounting of all funds awarded under the Scholarship.
